OBJECTIVES OF THE WEBINAR

The Indian ethos of swadeshi, rooted in self-reliance, is a reflection of the evolving psyche of Indianness. During the time of the freedom struggle, the swadeshi moment was a cultural expression, a moral enlightenment that urged Indians to acknowledge their identity through indigenous production. In the contemporary era, the concept of Atmanirbhar Bharat echoes a call that can be applied to a globalized world. With the amalgamation of historical memory, philosophical depth, and contemporary utility, this topic of the webinar expresses that true self-reliance is the call of the moment and should be implemented meaningfully in the world with courage and dignity. This webinar aims to explore and expound on the concept of continuance, where patrimony meets aspirations, and swadeshi catalyzes the astounding future of our beautiful Country.
